Victorian Boutique Spring Show Opens
March 13 – 28, 2010

Telford, Pa. (Feb. 19, 2010) – Telford, Pennsylvania's hidden treasure, the Victorian Boutique wakes up from the heavy winter with its Spring Show, March 13 – 28, 2010 in the home of Jackie and John Fenstermacher, 53 North Main Street, Telford.

The semiannual show, now in its 23rd year, is a unique craft and home decor shopping event. It is held in a nearly 200-year-old Victorian home. The home is transformed into a lovely boutique where each of the 13 period-rooms is elegantly decorated with quality home decor and specialty gifts for sale.

The magical ambiance makes for a memorable and cherished experience that is not to be missed. "Shoppers are delighted when they walk into our home for the spring show because they see their first glimpse of the changing season," Jackie said. "Because we take such care in decorating, the space is transformed into an uplifting, warm place -- is an experience that awakens the senses from the winter lull."

The spring show offers decor and gifts ideal for mother's day, Easter, graduation, bridal and baby showers and weddings along with Victorian Boutique staples of speciality candies, local artisan crafts, jewelry and one-of-a-kind finds.

There is a $1 entry fee for the first visit. After the first visit, all additional visits are welcomed without the entry fee.
